

Wellness and Education Commitment to Arkansas Excellence

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

College of Education & Health Professions

Would you like to teach children identified as gifted and talented? If you are a licensed Arkansas teacher, you can take online courses from the U of A to help you gain an endorsement in gifted and talented education from the Arkansas Department of Education.

The U of A offers 15 hours of online courses required by the Arkansas Department of Education for a licensure endorsement in gifted and talented education. Teachers apply to the U of A as non-degree-seeking students.
